SHOW ME THE MONEY

Bella Olsen, Shannon McCormick and Aray Trujillo were among 65 sixth graders from Plantation Key School who visited Bank of America's Tavernier center on Jan. 8. The visit culminated lessons taught by volunteers Maureen Griffin, Jodie Swanson, Jennifer Ashlee Harper and Carolyn Campbell through the Kids and the Power of Work program. KAPOW helps students apply what they learn in school to the workplace. During the visit, students learned about teller transactions, how to write checks and how money is protected, among other things.
